

NEWS RELEASE

VENTRILOQUIST, Ginger Ingram Brown and the “LITTLEFOLKS” will be coming to

_____ on _____ according to, _____.
(Church or organization) (Time) (Date) (Pastor or Director)

Song writer and recording artist, Ginger is author and producer of CD's, DVD's and books. Her many voices may be heard on several audio and video presentations produced primarily by Littlefolks Gospel Productions., Inc. Their “A Heavenly Home” video and activity book is being used with children who are dealing with grief, giving information that is educational but entertaining for all. The latest book, “I Just Know, going to heaven from a child's point of view” is in its second printing since December of 2009.

Ginger grew up on a Kansas farm and completed her BS degree at Emporia State University. She taught first grade in Hugoton, KS, where she began incorporating puppets with music to minister in churches.

Leaving her classroom after teaching eight years, Ginger developed characters that delight both children and adults with their songs and stories. She has traveled nationwide, as well as in many foreign countries, teaching children, and presenting adult training workshops. She has made many guest television appearances in the US and Canada.

COME AND JOIN US for the ministry of Ginger and her “Littlefolks”.